Rita Aguilar

Athlete

Rita played collegiate golf at Texas A & M University. She was a 4 yr scholarship athlete, a regular member of the travel squad, senior co-captain and a 3 yr. letterman. She graduated from A & M with a Bachelor of Science degree in non-teaching Physical Education.

After college, she competed in numerous USGA events, was an apprentice in the Sun Country PGA program and played the Futures Tour. "I took much pride in representing El Paso," she says. In her era, only Nancy Lopez and Rita represented Hispanic women.

After USGA re-instatement as an amateur, Rita dominated the local women's golf scene. She considers her 5 city championships as one of her biggest accomplishments. She had a remarkable run in the 1990's with four victories in a six year span. She is one of the most accomplished contributors to women's golf in the history of El Paso.

Over the years, she has been involved with many fundraisers and worthwhile causes. She served as charter president of the First Tee Golf program for 3 years and was a big help to Kristi Albers and the First Tee program. In her letter of recommendation, Kristi stated, "Rita has been instrumental at the First Tee of Greater El Paso. She served as the original President when we were establishing the program." Kristi also praises Rita for winning five City championships. "I only won three," she says.

Rita has served as president of the El Paso Golf Hall of Fame board since 2007. She was inducted into the El Paso Golf Hall of Fame in 2000. She is president and CEO of her business, Mountain Pass Coffee Company. Rita is a passionate Miami Dolphins fan, known as Phinphan by friends and family and is happily married to realtor, Aaron Lacey.

Billy Davis

Athlete

William "Billy" Davis was born on July 6, 1972 in El Paso, Texas. He was an Army "brat" and spent most of his formative years moving from base-to-base, living the nomadic life of those of us who serve. Billy learned to love football during his time as the son of a U.S. Army Colonel, and worked his way into an invitation to join the football team at the University of Pittsburg. Billy worked hard enough to become the fifth all-time in receptions for the university, and was an All-Conference awardee.

Billy's character and force-of-will allowed him, despite being undrafted, to become one of the strongest athletes in the National Football League (NFL), and he would go on to attain Super Bowl Championships with both the Dallas Cowboys and the Baltimore Ravens as a wide receiver. Billy is one of only 16 NFL athletes to have won super bowls in both the American Football Conference (AFC) and the National Football Conference (NFC). Billy is a badass. Despite his highly technical wide receiver duties, Billy was also named special teams captain on multiple teams because of his dedication and hard work.

Billy is currently owner of a health solutions services company called SOZO HEALTH-SOLUTIONS LLC. His resilience and dedication to our rural communities led Texas Department of Agriculture Commissioner Sid Miller to name him an honorary commissioner of the Texas Department of Agriculture, and most importantly the team captain of the GO TEXAN champion ambassador program.

Billy's leadership and horsepower is going to save rural healthcare facilities throughout the great state of Texas.

Billy Davis "Live a championship life."

Kaysie Smashey

Athlete

Kaysie Smashey is one of the great tennis players to ever come out of El Paso. She won a state championship, a national title and a professional title by the age of 15, then her career really took off.

As a high school player at Franklin, she won a trio of state championships in UIL 5-A competition and was named the 1998 Sunturian Female Athlete of the Year in El Paso.

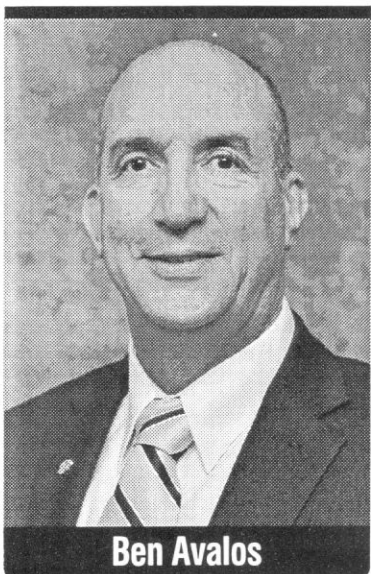

Smashey then took her talents to Austin to play for the University of Texas. In the next four years, Kaysie earned a full athletic scholarship and graduated with honors from the McCombs School of Business. While playing for the Longhorns, Kaysie earned two individual All-Big-12 Conference Academic First Team honors and four Big 12 Conference titles with her nationally ranked team.

Kaysie's career continued at the highest level in professional tennis. She won a total of four professional tournaments and reached a ranking of #146 in the world in doubles. A rotator cuff injury stalled her professional career but did not stop her high level of achievements.

She recently started competing in National Open Tournaments and was selected to compete for the USA team in Croatia and South Africa. Smashey has also put her academic achievements to good use. She teaches Kinesiology at Angelo State University and serves as the head tennis professional at Brentwood Country Club.

Ben Avalos

Coach

Ben Avalos was born and raised in Northeast El Paso. As a young man at Irvin High School, he began his love of wrestling under the tutelage of Coach Erwin Bloxdorf. Irvin wrestling became a powerhouse in Texas, winning two state championships in 1972 and 1973. As a senior in 1975, Ben Avalos went undefeated in the state and went on to become a state champion at 126 lbs.

After high school, Ben joined the United State Air Force and was selected to wrestle on the 1978 U.S. Air Force Freestyle and Greco-Roman Wrestling Team.

After graduating from UTEP, Ben began his wrestling coaching career at Eastwood High School in 1984. His team won the Texas State Wrestling Championship in 1985 and won 6 straight city/regional wrestling titles. The Troopers went on to record a 112-5 dual meet record and were ranked as one of the top high school wrestling teams in the nation.

In 1992, Ben was inducted into the Texas High School Wrestling Association Hall of Honor as an athlete and coach.

In 2008, he accepted a wrestling assistant coaching position at Hanks High School.

At Hanks, the boys won 4 district championships and the girls won 4 district/regional championships. In 2014, Hanks won the first Girls Texas State Wrestling Championship for El Paso.

Ben is the son of Lucio and Francisca Avalos, he has 5 sisters and a brother. He has been married to Terry Avalos for 40 years. He has two daughters, Whitney (Matthew) and Allison (Nicholas).

Anthony Carter

Anthony Carter has honorably served as the wrestling coach for both the boys and girls teams at Hanks High School for the past 27 years. His boys' team record is 530 wins with only 94 losses; that is an 88 percent win ratio. They have earned distinction of winning 19 district championships, 8 regional championships, and has been team state runner-ups twice. He has coached 30 state wrestlers, 8 of them were state champions and 5 were state runner-ups. As for the girls' team, his record is 151-18 and has won 12 district championships, 4 consecutive regional championships and 4 state championships.

Coach Carter has coached 55 state placers in which 18 were state champions and 15 were state runner-ups as well as 20 national All-Americans. He has been awarded the Greater El Paso Wrestling Coaches Association Female Coach of the Year 7 times, and the El Paso Times Coach of the Year for Girls wrestling 10 times.

Coach Carter was voted Regional Coach of the Year 7 times (3 times for the males and 4 times for the females), and state coach of the year 4 times (once for the males and 3 times for the females).

He was inducted into the Texas Wrestling Hall of Honor in 2008. He has been the assistant coach on Team Texas and the girl's USA National Team which were national runner ups twice. Coach Carter was the 2016 Texas Girls Coaches Association wrestling coach of the year, the 2016 National Federation of State High School Association's regional coach of the year and the national wrestling coach of the year.

Ronnie Hernandez

Official

Ronnie Hernandez was born and raised in El Paso. He was an All-State football and basketball player at Cathedral High School. He was a four year letterman at Fort Lewis College in Durango Colorado. In 1977, he began his 40 year coaching and teaching career in El Paso. Along the way he was head football coach at Parkland High School, Fabens High School, El Paso High School and Socorro High School.

Ronnie had an amazing basketball officiating career, starting 35 years ago in El Paso with the Southwest Officials Association. Within three years of doing middle school, 9th, JV and varsity basketball in the county, he started doing varsity in the city. Here he officiated 10 consecutive years of boys and girls bi-district games. In 1996 he received the ultimate honor for a high school official, he represented El Paso from 1996-2000 at the state basketball championships in Austin.

While having a very accomplished high school career, his college career is even more impressive. He first got hired by the WAC in 1988, his first big opportunity in Division 1 basketball. In 1989 he was invited to join the old Southwest Conference by the legendary Paul Galvan. When the Southwest Conference folded, he continued to call in the WAC, but also began calling in the Mountain West, Big Sky and Big West conferences. Along the way he also called in four National Junior College finals in Hutchinson Kansas.

He just completed his 29 year calling Division-1 basketball, an almost never heard of accomplishment. He also officiated 26 years of junior college, 25 years of NAIA, Division 2 and 3 basketball. Ronnie also takes great pride in the fact that his son Kevin is following in his footsteps, currently calling high school football and basketball.

Ronnie credits his incredible career to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hernandez, who kept him grounded and have continually given him unconditional love and support. His only regret is that his Dad, who passed away several years ago is not here to share this great honor with his granddaughters, his son, and his Mom.

Ray Adatao

Media

Ray "Uncle Ray" Adatao was born in El Paso to Alejandro and Josephine Adatao. He is married to Margaret for 46 years. His daughters are Alexis Ferguson (Brian) and Angeli-que Roman (Judge Richard Roman). His grandchildren are Gabriella & Mathew Roman (El Paso) and Ian & Adam Ferguson (Cedar Park, Texas). Uncle Ray has been involved in sports in one form or another for over half his life.

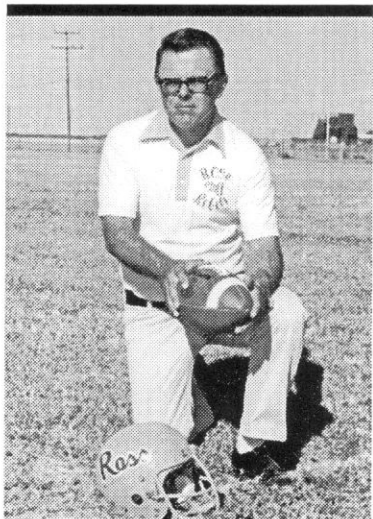

Ray played football for Cathedral High School where he was all district and all county; was an umpire for high school football; is best known as a public address announcer for UTEP basketball and football, UTEP women's basketball and volleyball, the Double AA El Paso Diablos, and the Triple AAA El Paso Chihuahuas. Ray started Friday night football on KROD ESPN 600 radio 25 years ago and pioneered the use of cellular phones to cover more games, a first in the country. He has done the P A for numerous Sun Bowl football and basketball games, is currently the P A for the WestStar Bank Don Haskins Sun Bowl Tournament, and the Sunturian Fight Night as well as commercial voice overs.

He is employed by the El Paso Association of Builders as Executive Vice President. He was recently elected to the Rio Grande Cancer Foundation Board; member of the Texas Executive Officers Association; Past President of Vista Del Sol Optimist, and is involved at St. Clements Church.

Ray Adatao was nominated this year by EPAHOF member James "Flip" Lyle.

Wally Hartley

Posthumous

Under his famous motto, "Pride Makes Champions," Coach Wally Hartley was the head coach at Ross Junior High/Middle School from 1964-1984. During his tenure, Coach Hartley won over 20 district championships in football, track, and cross country. Some of these teams went undefeated during their respective seasons. He created a dynasty at the Junior High/Middle School level that is unmatched by few but desired by many.

Coach Hartley was married to Connie Hartley and raised 3 beautiful daughters; Kelly, Shauna, and Colleen. A 1951 Ysleta High School and 1956 Texas Western College graduate, Coach Hartley began his coaching and teaching career at Crocket and Dowell Elementary Schools, finally retiring from EPISD in 1996, as the warehouse manager.

While as the head coach at Ross, Coach Hartley's teams were a force to be reckoned with. Coach Hartley was color blind when it came to his players. He did not care what race or color you were. He did care about a person's character, dedication, discipline, and respect as a person. He expected his players to be respectful of their elders, parents, and teachers. Players were required to be the best behaved students in the classroom. He encouraged his players to get their education and be successful in life.

Coach Hartley's players remember that he always wanted to play everyone. As his teams would build huge leads during games, he would sit his starters and play their replacements. This built team spirit among the players. His teams learned that "Pride did make Champions".
