During the baseball season, I spend about 30 hours a week working in and with the Eastwood Optimist baseball-softball program.

The most important thing about working with the youth in these programs is to try to build moral character through personal example, discipline, teaching sportsmanship, fair play, and a genuine respect for every person.

NOTE: Most of the above information can be verified by Steve Hicks, Eastwood Optimist and/or Evie Monticone of City Parks and Recreation.
